SUMMER 2014

Fully Rely On God – FROG

On my honor I will do my duty to God. Yes, that is the start of the Boy Scout Oath – no I didn't forget I was writing to a Cursillo Community. I have spent the last eight weeks as a Camp Chaplain for the Boy Scouts in Goshen, VA on 5000 acres surrounding a 430 acre lake with 7 Scout Camps. As Chaplain, I promoted Duty to God through six religious services a week and teaching about the Religious Awards program.

There were obstacles. I arrived as a Protestant Chaplain and was informed that my services were "interfaith" – no cross, no New Testament, and no Jesus. I wasn't prepared for that. My messages were Jesus-related. After all, He is my Lord and Savior. The next obstacle could have ended my summer as a Chaplain. I fell and dislocated my shoulder and fractured my humerus. Time to practice what I preach, Fully Rely on God (FROG). I stayed and prayed, "Lord how do I deal with this interfaith stuff." Most of my messages were about fully relying on God but using Jesus and His teachings.

The answer came the next morning as I sat on the porch of my cabin – David and Goliath. And a new message was developed, one understood by most. David depended on his Lord and defeated Goliath; I'd ask, "What are your Goliaths, what is holding you back from serving your God?"

Now I ask you, "What is your Goliath, the Giant that keeps you from moving forward, from fully doing your duty to God?" Defeat the Goliath as David did – he Fully Relied on God. FROG

Rediscover the Joy !

Funny how quickly summer slips away and we now prepare for the onset of fall. I am reminded that soon we will be washed in the rainbow of changing leaves and crisp cool nights, God’s own natural celebration of Cursillo exploding in majesty right before us. It is also a time of preparation where the creatures sense and know they must store up for leaner months ahead. I hope this summer has been fulfilling for your soul and that the preparations for the activities ahead do not cause you to miss the beauty of fall.

I was blessed late this summer being an active part of vacation bible school and acting out scenes from the book of Daniel. God was present and ever reminding throughout the week. I recall as we learned the story of the 3 faithful friends, you couldn’t help but smell the campfire someone had as we discussed the furnace being fired up. You bet the children noticed too. Nothing beats God’s effects for mood setting.

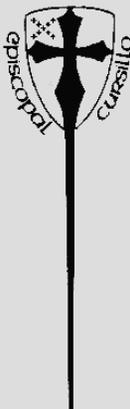

But perhaps the greatest gift of the week was a sense of community and oneness with Christ. It was a spiritual recharge of my soul where I realized I need that food and must seek out and store up the fuel of faith through action. The event created a bound community that heard of piety, and studied and participated in action. We made friends, we were friends with children and parents, and ultimately we shared in Christ.

I hope you have been prayerfully considering candidates for our upcoming weekend in early November. Now is the time to discuss the possibility of attending with them and your Rector. It promises to be a one of a kind weekend as we will move into the Inn for the first time.

Also coming soon, October 4, we will have a chance to simply celebrate the joy of our community and recharge and feed our own souls. For the first time we will have a gathering where all communities are invited to share in a music fest where local musicians will play for those attending. There is no agenda for the event other than to come as you are, rekindle the fire of the Spirit and reawaken your soul to the joy of the Cursillo and the fellowship of Christians. Invite any and everyone as we welcome all. Most important, invite yourself and rediscover joy and happiness in the body. See you at St. Margaret’s, Annapolis on the 4th of October. To rsvp or for more information, please email me at wishbonedavid@yahoo.com.

MARYLAND EPISCOPAL CURSILLO WEEKEND 107

“Let Faith Arise” November 6 - 9, 2014

Greetings! I’m honored to be called as Rector for MD 107. The core team has met a few times and is well into the planning for the Weekend. The team has been called and will soon start the teaming process. We’re all looking forward to the first Weekend to be held in the new Inn at The Claggett Center.

The theme for the Weekend, Let Faith Arise, came about when, shortly after being called as Rector for MD107, I was in church and my priest commented in his sermon on the faith (and lack thereof) of many professing Christians. Hopefully, introducing the candidates to the Cursillo method will reawaken their faith while renewing our own. So, pray for the team and for the people you will be approaching as potential candidates. Remember, applications can be found at www.mdepiscopalcursillo.com and are to be sent to David Wissmann by October 6th. Thank you for all your support.

Collect for 4th Day Movements
O Gracious God, whose power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine, look with favor on all those gathering around the world in Cursillo, Happening, Chrysalis, Walk to Emmaus, Via de Cristo, Kairos, and other such movements. Grant both the leaders and candidates such wisdom, power, humility, and grace that day by day they would more nearly follow Your Way, more clearly see Your Truth, and more dearly love the Life You give through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From the Servant Community

Greetings from the Servant Community! That is all of Gods people. We are all in His service together. When one of us needs, we all need. When one of us hurts, we all hurt.

As a servant of God we are all asked to put others first. Through the Cursillo movement we do just that. If we all could continue this in our everyday lives that would be a perfect world! Oh yeah, we are only human. So lets start over with a prayer for help from our Lord and Savior. Asking for the right words to say or the right action to take. Then, and only then, can we move ahead with confidence. I would ask all who read this article to pray for that guidance. Is there some act of servant hood you could contribute to support the Cursillo movement of Maryland? The positions that remain in need are listed in this newsletter.

I dedicate this to Veronica Garabedian, a wonderful example of a Servant for God and His people. Thanks for your Actions in advance. See you at the porch!

A Statement from the National Episcopal Cursillo

A Statement from the National Episcopal Cursillo, May 2008

Cursillo has always kept its eyes firmly focused on Jesus and on the Mission. One of the principles of the Cursillo movement is that:

We focus on Christ and His resurrection power in our lives, transforming us into the people He would have us be.

Theological disputes and political issues have no part in our agenda.

The Cursillo Movement is a movement that brings together all people, whether they might consider themselves to have a liberal or conservative Christian philosophy or somewhere in between, for the common good of promoting Jesus Christ and God’s Mission. It is Christ-centered and Christ-focused. The Policy of the National Episcopal Cursillo Committee is that it will not be an organization with a political or social agenda. National Episcopal Cursillo is a movement of the Episcopal Church.

We recognize, however, that a number of individuals with connections and interest in the Episcopal Cursillo Movement are no longer affiliated with the Episcopal Church. As a sign of reconciliation, we welcome those still able, as individuals, to be in communion with the local Episcopal Diocesan Bishop and fellow Cursillistas, whether lay or ordained, to participate in the activities of the Cursillo Movement. Furthermore, and always at the Diocesan Bishop’s discretion, we encourage an openness to their continued participation and interest in the activities of the Episcopal Cursillo. It should be understood by all that as a part of their participation, they agree to do so fully for the advancement of Cursillo, be supportive of the mission of Episcopal Cursillo, and agree that they will not promote any political agenda.

What is clear is that National Episcopal Cursillo was created to serve the Episcopal Church in the United States, and we are licensed by the Roman Catholic Church to do that. Despite our personal theological and political views, we are focused on knowing Christ and making Him known to others. That is our call and in doing it lays our greatest joy. Ultreya! Ultreya!! Let us get on with the day’s apostolic action. Let us all pray for the Church and one another everyday.

Witness Talk - My Summer of Love

This summer has been a very different one for me. Normally my family and I spend as much time as we can at our little cabin in Windham, NY, making whatever repairs are needed, barbecuing and eating outside, wading in the freezing cold water of our stream, sitting around camp fires and gazing at the endless number of stars in the black sky. So far this year, I've only been to our cabin once, and that was on the Memorial Day weekend.

Last spring I attended the Life in the Spirit Seminar held here at St. Mark's. It was a very interesting and very spiritual time for me. There is no doubt in my mind that I was baptized in the Holy Spirit during one of the meetings and I'll never forget the experience. At the end of the six week seminar, we were given a questionnaire to fill in, designed to help you discover your special gifts of the Holy Spirit. After much prayer, I answered the questions and tallied up the results. The top three areas I scored in were Intercession, Healing, and Evangelism. As far as Intercession goes, I have a long list of people I pray for every day and am the contact person here at St. Mark's for our prayer chain. As for healing, I recently rejoined the order of St. Luke which has started a new chapter here at St. Mark's. And concerning evangelism, I try every day to live my life so that others will be led to know Jesus through my actions. Thanks to the guidance of the Holy Spirit, it seems that I've been doing what God wants me to do.

This summer my mother in law has been my focus. Last winter, she began to gradually change. Over time she became deeply depressed. It was terrible to watch her turn into a person that I didn't recognize. When my sister in law and niece visited in June she was unable to cook meals for them, so I stepped in to do it. She wound up never leaving her home except for a visit to the doctor. She couldn't seem to muster up the strength even to get dressed on most days. She was always tired and suffered terribly from insomnia, headaches and nausea. She hasn't cooked a real meal for herself or driven her car in months. She also got confused about the medications she should have been taking. After a lot of doctor visits, two falls, four emergency room visits this summer and a three week stay at Our Lady of Consolation, she is finally getting treatment for her problems.

Instead of wringing my hands and asking God why this was happening, I found strength and tenderness I didn't know I had. I began doing her grocery shopping and preparing meals for her, taking her to doctor appointments, labeling her medications day by day and explaining to her over and over why it was very important that she take the medications as prescribed. I tried to encourage her that this was only temporary and that she would get better. On top of this, I was trying to comfort my husband, who was devastated, and also frustrated about his mother's condition. Madeline has always been strong and capable, and to see her in this state was sometimes unbearably sad for Gary, and also for the rest of us. I pray for the wisdom to know what to do, for the strength to continue helping Madeline even as I also work full time and take care of my home and family, including Autumn, my very active 7 year old granddaughter. I have also continued to group and continue my other church related activities. And I have also agreed to be part of Cursillo Team #91 which begins team training this month. I was even able to enjoy a two day trip to Hershey Park with Nicole and Autumn at the end of August. We had a great time and I know it's a memory that Autumn will have for the rest of her life.

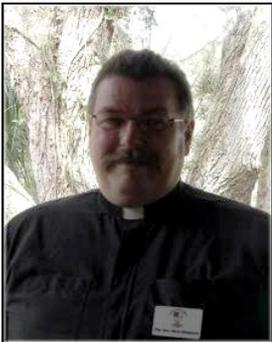

With continued prayer, God has provided me with all I need to lovingly serve Him and everyone He has sent my way. I do thank Him daily for all of the blessings He gives me every day, and there have been many. I don't feel overwhelmed any more, and I know it's because He is answering my daily prayers for strength and stamina. I pray daily for the ability to listen for the direction of the Holy Spirit, and also for the courage to be obedient to His direction. With all that God gives me daily, I know that I will continue to serve Him to the best of my ability. Some days I feel frustrated since I fear that Madeline may no longer be able to live alone eventually. But every day God brings me peace and helps me to do my best to deal with the situation as it is for that day. My husband and his brothers now have to face the reality that Madeline may have to be in an assisted living facility someday; a decision that has to be made by them together. Until then, I'll continue to love and help Madeline, and anyone else God sends my way, in every way that I can. ULTREYA

Witness Talk - Gospel Response

Pat thank you for your wonderful witness talk. The Scripture passage that came to mind come from Paul’s letter to the Philippians. Paul has been through hardship and the Church, upon learning about it, reaches out to be of some help to Paul. He was most grateful for their loving action, and goes on to tell them, that he in his life he has known plenty, and he has also known privation, and that he is content either way because he has found the secret of living well.

I can Do all things through God who strengthens me. Philippians 4:13

Pat you have reminded us that in all our actions and ministry we have a source of constant strength, comfort and inspiration through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
